

FINAL PAPER INSTRUCTIONS:

During this course, we have learned how some features of the world's societies have changed and how other features have remained the same by focusing on some historical themes:

Themes:

- 1) power and authority structures
- 2) revolutionary moments
- 3) economic systems
- 4) cultural developments
- 5) scientific/technological innovations.

*For your final assignment, select two of these themes and demonstrate:

- A. how some elements of each theme have changed over the period of time covered in this course
- B. how some elements of each theme have stayed the same over the period of time covered in this course
- C. how someone holding a Christian worldview would interpret the change and continuity of your selected themes differently from someone holding a secular worldview.

Requirements:

- 750 words minimum
- APA-compliant formatting, including title and reference pages
- Minimum of five scholarly references- (two of these from the Books I provided access)

Minimum of four references to documents from the Perry reader

Be sure that your response to criteria C –equals at least 150-200 words and includes the following three sections:

- 1) Christian worldview regarding the course
- 2) biblical passages related to the course
- 3) comparison of secular and Christian perspectives related to the course.
